PARENT TEACHER ASSOCIATION (PTA)
GUIDELINES

PTA GOALS:

1. To ensure unique academic standards and an adequate educational environment in the school.
2. To contribute to achieving the educational goals of the school.
3. To develop and organize constructive relations between parents, teachers and the administration of the school and the school's Board of Trustees through dialogue, research and activities.
4. To develop the interaction between the parents and the teachers.
5. To support the school by helping in developing the facilities and securing needed equipment, including safety provisions for the school. This may include developing relations between the school and public authorities to facilitate project implementation.
6. To cooperate with specialized institutions in providing professional training for teachers, helping the parents in dealing with their children, and organizing extra academic help for the students in coordination with the school administration.
7. To help the school in fundraising and help it diversify its revenues to support its operational and development programs.
8. To contribute to developing the academic programs and the extracurricular activities in the school.
9. To contribute to developing the discipline policies, including those relating to the school uniform and other academic rules in the school.
10. To help the school in applying the discipline policies and ensuring students' compliance with rules and regulations.
11. To work on developing the parents' contribution towards achieving school objectives through various means, including ensuring parent representation in the school Board of Trustees.

The authorities of the PTA

1. The PTA has a moral authority and not a legislative or an executive one which is based on dialogue with the school administration.
2. The PTA is committed to working according to the goals outlined in the Bylaws. It is also committed to ensuring confidentiality with its relations limited to the school principals and the Head of School.
3. The PTA is authorized to contact the school's Board of Trustees only if the administration refuses to cooperate with the PTA.
4. The PTA can discuss and follow up on all its concerns regarding the school only with the school administration.
5. PTA members have no right to enter the school's facilities, buildings, or classrooms and/or to approach individual teachers. Nor do the PTA members have the authority to exercise professional academic inspections.
6. The PTA has the right to form technical committees to help it in achieving its goals, as detailed in the Bylaws.
7. The PTA has the right to appoint an advisory committee to help it achieve its goals.
